- Section 1. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the CCE/AFT and shall administer all of the affairs and executive policies as determined by the Executive Council. The President shall preside at all Executive Council meetings. The President may be a member of any committee, except any audit committee. The President shall sign all necessary papers and documents, and shall represent the CCE/AFT when and where necessary. The President shall make a report to the membership at least once each year summarizing the accomplishments of the past year and/or outlining plans for the upcoming year.
- Section 2. The senior Vice-President shall in the absence or disability of the President, possess all of the powers, and perform all of the duties of the office of President. The junior Vice-President shall assume these duties and powers in the absence or disability of the senior Vice President. The Vice-Presidents shall at all times assist the President in the performance of these duties.
- Section 3. The Secretary shall issue all notices, keep a record of all proceedings of the local and the Executive Council, shall work under the direction of the President in the performance of all other responsibilities as may be given him or her by the President or the Executive Council, and shall in the absence or disability of the President and Vice-Presidents, possess all the powers and perform all the duties of the office of the President.

- Section 4. The Treasurer shall be the financial officer of the CCE/AFT. The duties shall include:
- (a) The collection of all monies, properties, files, and effects of the CCE/AFT.
 - (b) The payment of all monies properly authorized by the Council or the President through the adopted budget of the CCE/AFT.
 - (c) To arrange no less than annually for the audit of all books, accounts, records, and financial transactions of the CCE/AFT by an independent auditing firm. The audit report shall be provided to the Executive Council.
 - (d) Provide periodic reports to the Executive Council.
 - (e) Keep all membership records.
- Section 5. The senior Grievance Officer shall meet with the District to informally resolve and prevent grievances, and shall bring potentially formal grievances to the Executive Council for review. The junior Grievance Officer shall conduct preliminary investigations and interviews under the direction of the senior Grievance Officer and shall meet regularly with the union stewards.
- Section 6. The union stewards serve as non-voting members of the Executive Council and shall communicate with members regarding union-related activities, issues, and interests. Stewards shall attend Executive Council meetings as necessary to relay members' interests and concerns. Stewards shall apprise the junior Grievance Officer of potential grievances.

Article IV. Negotiations Committee

- Section 1. The Negotiations Committee will be appointed by the Executive Council. There will be five permanent members on the Negotiations Committee and up to three alternates.
- Section 2. The Negotiations Committee develops contract proposals, analyzes the employer's budget, and does other necessary research related to bargaining.
- Section 3. The Negotiations Committee shall represent the local in negotiations with Palomar Community College District and their representative(s).

Article VI. Membership Committee

- Section 1. The Membership Committee shall hold social events and scholarship fundraisers, conduct professional issues conferences, develop membership benefits packages, and be responsible for the recruitment and retention of members.
- Section 2. The Membership Committee surveys members on issues, secures speakers for meetings, and researches and follows issues in the local's jurisdiction.

Article VII. Political Action Committee

- Section 1. The Political Action Committee is responsible for political fund-raising, insuring membership participation in political campaigns, and making recommendations to the Executive Council for endorsements.
- Section 2. The Political Action Committee is responsible for developing membership support for local, state, and national lobbying activities.

Article VIII. Amendment Procedures for Constitution and Bylaws

- Section 1. Amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws may be proposed by 2/3 of the votes cast at a regular meeting of the Executive Council, provided that the proposed amendment was read at a previous meeting.
- Section 2. Amendments may be proposed by petition to the Executive Council by 15% of the membership.
- Section 3. Not less than 21 days following the Executive Council's acceptance of proposed amendments, amendments will be sent to the membership for ratification. Not less than 10 days prior to the ratification vote, members shall receive written notification of the proposed changes, including the date, time, and place where the matter will be read and acted upon.
- Section 4. Amendments to the Constitution shall be adopted by a 2/3 vote of members at the reading. Amendments to the Bylaws require a simple majority vote of members present. Amendments may be continued for consideration at a designated future meeting upon approval by a plurality of members present.
